

What Sinclair Broadcasting is doing by airing the "stolen Honor" documentary is unfair and illegal. They use public airwaves and have a duty to be fair and balanced. If they do show this they should at least show a pro-Kerry film such as "Going Upriver". I will follow this controversy with great interest. Please stop Sinclair from breaking the law.